

Bill Kazmaier

William Kazmaier was a renowned Strongman during the 1970s and 1980s. He was a world Champion Power Lifter, World Champion Strongman, and American Professional Wrestler. Bill was born in Burlington, Wisconsin on Dec. 30th, 1953. During the 1970s and 1980s, Bill became a 2-time International Federation Champion and a 3-time World's Strongest Man, in addition to setting many strongman and power lifting world records.

Bill Kazmaier, during the 1980s, famously claimed to be the "strongest man who ever lived" while becoming well known for his super human feats of strength. As a strongman and strength competitor, Bill is considered by many to be one of the greatest competitors of all-time.

Artic Physical Therapy and Rehab is proud and grateful to have Bill Kazmaier as their official spokesman. Bill travels across "the Last Frontier", Alaska as a motivational speaker where he is able to share his personal philosophy of "Conceive, Believe and Achieve." He travels to many communities to share his knowledge and experience on numerous aspects of Health and Wellness. His speeches are strong and insightful and are sure to leave a lasting impact on the communities he visits.
